Interviewer:	Michael McCloskey, Tri-State Enterprise

On July 26, 2004, Michael McCloskey contacted the WITNESS at his place of employment by telephone at (215) 473-6700. This contact was made to follow-up on information regarding the correct identity of the Heller that the WITNESS had contact with when he, the WITNESS, disposed of waste at the Clearview Landfill.

The WITNESS was asked if he was sure the name of the Heller that he had contact with at the Clearview Landfill was Richie Heller, Sr. The WITNESS stated he is not sure and explained that he never knew the first name of the Heller that he had contact with at the Clearview Landfill. The WITNESS stated that he knows Richie Heller and always thought that "old man" Heller was Richie Heller, Sr. The WITNESS stated that the Richie Heller that he knows is the son of "old man" Heller. The WITNESS stated that he has heard that the "old man" Heller retired to Florida many years ago.

When asked how he knows Richie Heller, the WITNESS stated that he now recalls that in the late 1960s, he observed Richie Heller at the Clearview Landfill. The WITNESS stated that "old man" Heller was also at the Clearview Landfill at that time. The WITNESS stated that he always received directions from "old man" Heller. The WITNESS stated that he had observed Richie Heller operate one of the bulldozers at the Clearview Landfill and was told by "old man" Heller that Richie was his son.

When asked who owned and operated the Clearview Landfill when he disposed of waste at the Site, the WITNESS stated "old man" Heller. When asked how he knew "old man" Heller owned Clearview Landfill, the WITNESS stated that he had been told this by "old man" Heller the first time he disposed of waste on the Landfill.
